

Exodus: God Sees Aaron Make a Golden Calf Exodus 32:1-29; 40:12-15

Moses is gone for a while, and the Israelites get upset. They ask Aaron to make a god they can see. Aaron goes along with the crowd. He makes a golden calf to worship. Thankfully, God loves us even when we go along with the crowd, so he later lets Aaron become a priest.

"Trust in the Lord with all your heart; do not depend on your own understanding. Seek his will in all you do, and he will show you which path to take" (Proverbs 3:5-6).

Family Together Time

Try this fun family activity to see how the wrong crowd can rub off on us.

- Give everyone in your family two different colors of construction paper.
- Each person will write his or her name on one piece and the names of friends on the other.
- Use a glue stick to stick the two pieces together, writing-side in.
- Rub the papers between your hands to help the glue adhere better. As you do, talk about your friendships. How do you build each other up? tear each other down?
- Pull the papers apart and see what happens.
- Discuss whether the people you hang out with are the people you want to rub off on you.

Talk About This...

- Tell about a time everyone around you was making a wrong choice.
