

Here's what happens...

Abram is Lot's uncle, and the two live and travel together. But because God has given them so many animals, they need to split up. Abram lets Lot choose which land he wants, and Lot chooses the better side. God is giving, and we can reflect God's generosity.

Bible Point:

God is giving, so we're giving.

"Have you never heard? Have you never understood? The Lord is the everlasting God, the Creator of all the earth. He never grows weak or weary. No one can measure the depths of his understanding" (Isaiah 40:28).

Through the Week

Give up what you want and instead collect the money to give away this week.

- Find ways to cut costs this week. Here are some examples.
  - If you normally order pizza on Fridays, eat in instead.
  - If you normally buy school lunch, bring a brown-bag lunch this week.
  - If Mom or Dad usually goes to Starbucks, skip it for the week.
- Put all the money you would've spent in a jar. (If you don't have cash, just write IOUs.)
- At the end of the week, give the money to church or charity.
- Talk about what good things God gave you as you showed generosity. For example, maybe you got a nice note in your lunch from a parent, or you had fun cooking your Friday night meal together.

Talk About This...

- What's a gift you were really excited to give? Why were you excited?
